Announcement of Changes in Rock Island Not as Complete as Expected.

BY BROADEN WALL.

New York, October 23.—About 1 o'clock when Steel common was selling at 64, somebody "guessed" that the quarterly earnings issued after the close would fall short of the predicted issue of $40,000,000 to $45,000,000. The "guess" proved wonderfully accurate, and the stock sold down 2 points before the close. The market was narrow, there was a tendency toward a stock market to trade in, directors can ignore the gold pieces received for attending important meetings.

Today's business was moderate in volume and prices in the early dealings were steady. Union Pacific, Reading, Amalgamated Copper gained a point or more, and while the market was narrow there was a tendency toward a stock market to trade in, directors can ignore the gold pieces received for attending important meetings.

Word was received from Washington that Senator O'Connell had been elected to the United States Senate. The election was a surprise, as O'Connell was not expected to be elected.

Large Professional Dealings. The stock market was largely professional and the market was reported as thin. When prices once began to rise they did so rapidly enough from 1 to 2 points. Declining markets were reported in the early dealings, but the market was steady.

Announcement of Changes in Rock Island Not as Complete as Expected. The announcement of changes in the management of Rock Island was not as complete as expected. It is understood that a representative of the Phillips-Dodge Interests will be chosen chairman of the executive committee.

Gold Dealings. Gold dealings were again in large volume, although prices were not so high as in the early part of the day. The market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day.

Stock Market. The stock market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day. The market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day.

Richmond Stock Market. The Richmond stock market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day. The market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day.

Local Market Quotations. The local market quotations were steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day. The market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day.

COTTON MARKETS

New York, October 23.—The cotton market showed continued nervousness and irregularity during today's trading. Bad weather reports and bulkier cottons checked the market on an early decline, but failed to create enough aggressive buying to cause a recovery. The market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS

Chicago, October 23.—Wheat—Relief from drought in Argentina caused a setback in the price of wheat. As a result the market was steady and prices were not so high as in the early part of the day.
